 - Language and Literacy
 - Physical development
 - Creative development
 - Personal and social and emotional development.

GUIDELINES AND INFORMATION

Committee

Funtime Pre-School is non profit making and is managed by a Parent Management Committee. The Committee is composed entirely of volunteer parents/carers who are elected at an annual general meeting. They are responsible for employing Early Years Practitioners, fund raising and other administrative duties. Unfortunately, without a committee the pre-school will close. The committee is made up of the following positions:

Chairperson
Vice Chairperson
Secretary
Treasurer
Health and Safety Officer
Fundraising Officer
Additional members

Early Years Practitioners

There are seven Early Years Practitioners employed by the committee, consisting of Supervisor/manager, a Deputy Supervisor and five Early Years Practitioners. This provides a staff/child ratio of 1:6. A part time administrator is also employed.

Supervisor	Angie O’Driscoll
Deputy Supervisor	Rebecca Bate
Senior Early Years Practitioners	Frances Magnus Karen Halbauer
Early Years Practitioners	Chloe Channon Caroline Moseley Katherine Hanson
Administrator	Marisa Reynolds

All the Early Years Practitioners are trained and have various qualifications. These include: Foundation Degree in Early Years, NVQ level 3, BTEC National Diploma in Early Years, Diploma in Pre-school Practice, Child Development, Curriculum Planning and First Aid Courses. All Early Years Practitioners keep updated with new thinking in the field of Child Education and Care and have access to a range of professionally produced publications, which are also available for parents/carers to borrow. Ongoing training is available through Hampshire County Council and the Pre-School Learning Alliance, which are available for both Early Years Practitioners and parents/carers. Informal training is also available through local meetings, conferences and workshops; parents/carers will be informed about these via the notice board in the lobby.

 We run extra afternoon sessions from January up to the end of the Summer Term, these are used mainly to give an extra session to the children who are leaving for main school the following September. The sessions give the children some experience of going to 'Big School' and further develop their basic skills. We liaise with the local primary school teachers with regard to these sessions.

Fees

The fees per session at present are £9 (£3 per hour) and these are payable half termly, monthly or weekly in advance. You will receive an invoice from the committee treasurer, stating the amount due. Please enclose a cheque/cash in a sealed named envelope and post it in the Fees Box in the Lobby. If this is not available, please see the Supervisor or one of our Early Years Practitioners. Fees continue to be paid in the case of absence due to holiday or sickness. Each child's attendance at the group is conditional upon continued payment of any necessary fees, which include the Nursery Education Grant (NEG). The government currently fund 38 weeks per year. Should you have any difficulties with regard to payment of fees, please speak to the Committee Treasurer, Pre-school Administrator or your child's key person. All matters will be treated in the strictest confidence.

Nursery Education Grant

Nursery Education Grant offers funding for 3 and 4 year olds. All pre-school children are entitled to funding the first term after their third birthday. Parents will be given a Parent Declaration Form to complete shortly before their child becomes eligible, which must be returned to pre-school to claim for funding. All children are entitled to 15 free hours per week which must be taken over at least 3 days.

ADMISSION POLICY

Statement of Intent:

It is our intention to make our pre-school accessible to all children and families living in the community.

Aim:

To ensure that all sections of our community have access to the pre-school through open, fair and clearly communicated procedures.

Methods:

We will place notices advertising pre-school in places where all sections of the community can see them and in more than one language if appropriate. We have a waiting list and children are placed on this as soon as they are registered with us. The children are then accepted into pre-school in order of date of birth and can attend pre-school the term or half term nearest to them reaching the age of 2 years and 9 months - providing we do not exceed the ratio that no more than 4 of the children attending each session are under the age of 3 years.

We have places for 26 children in each session, these are utilized by:

- Children staying on from the previous year.
- Children reaching the minimum required age.
- Children from families who have moved into the local area.

Opening times are agreed and formally voted in at the annual general meeting by the parents and we are flexible about attendance patterns, so as to accommodate the needs of the individual child(ren) and their families. We operate as fair a system as we can with regards to equal opportunities.

BEHAVIOUR MANAGEMENT POLICY

Statement of intent

Our pre-school believes that children flourish best when they know how they are expected to behave and should be free to play and learn without fear of being hurt or unfairly restricted by anyone else.

Aim

We aim to provide an environment in which there is acceptable behaviour and where children learn to respect themselves, other people and their environment. We aim to work towards a situation in which children can develop self-discipline and self-esteem in an atmosphere of mutual respect and encouragement.

Methods

In order to achieve this, rules governing the conduct of the group and the behaviour of the children will be discussed and agreed within the pre-school and explained to all Early Years Practitioners and volunteers.

We have a named person Angie O'Driscoll who is required to

- Keep herself up-to-date with legislation and research and thinking on handling children's behaviour.
- Access relevant sources of expertise on handling children's behaviour and
- Check that all Early Years Practitioners have relevant in service training on handling children's behaviour. We keep a record of Early Years Practitioners attendance at this training.

We require Early Years Practitioners, volunteers and students to provide a positive model of behaviour by treating children, parents and one another with friendliness, care and courtesy. Adults in pre-school will praise and endorse desirable behaviour such as kindness and willingness to share. We familiarise new Early Years Practitioners and volunteers with the pre-school's behaviour policy and its rules for behaviour.

We expect all members of the pre-school - children, parents, Early Years Practitioners volunteers and students to keep to the rules, requiring these to be applied consistently.

We avoid creating situations in which children receive adult attention only in return for undesirable behaviour. When children behave in unacceptable ways, physical punishment such as smacking or shaking will be neither used nor threatened. Children will never be sent out of the room by themselves.

We do not use techniques intended to single out and humiliate individual children.

We only use physical restraint, such as holding, to prevent physical injury to children or adults and/or serious damage to property. Details of such an event (what happened, what action was taken and by whom, and the names of witnesses) are brought to the attention of our pre-school supervisor and are recorded in our incident book. A parent is informed on the same day and signs the incident book to indicate that he/she has been informed.

In cases of serious misbehaviour, such as racial or other abuse, we make clear immediately the unacceptability of the behaviour and attitudes, by means of explanations rather than personal blame. We do not shout or raise voices in a threatening way to respond to children's behaviour. We handle children's unacceptable behaviour in ways which are appropriate to their ages and stages of development - e.g. by distraction, discussion or by withdrawing the child from the situation. Recurring problems will be tackled by the whole pre-school, in partnership with the child's parents, using objective observation records to establish an understanding of the cause. Parents are regularly informed about their child's behaviour by their Key Person. Adults will be aware that some kinds of behaviour may arise from a child's special needs.

Bullying

Bullying involves the persistent physical or verbal abuse of another child or children. We take bullying very seriously. If a child bullies another child or children:

- we intervene to stop the child harming the other child(ren)
- We explain to the child doing the bullying why her/his behaviour is inappropriate;
- We give reassurance to the child(ren) who have been bullied
- We help the child who has done the bullying to say sorry for his/her actions;
- We do not label children who bully
- When children bully, we discuss what has happened with their parents and work out with them a plan for handling the child's behaviour; and
- When children have been bullied, we share what has happened with their parents, explaining that the child who did the bullying is being helped to adopt more acceptable ways of behaving.

PHYSICAL HANDLING POLICY

Background

What is positive handling and how can we use this to support children and Early Years Practitioners in a pre-school setting?

Early Years Practitioners requested guidance on how to work with children who were finding it difficult to communicate their needs and would express themselves through aggression i.e. shouting, screaming, biting, hitting out, throwing objects, pushing etc. A working party was developed, made up of representatives from the Early Education and Childcare Unit, area Special Educational Needs Co-ordinator (SENCO) and the Pre School Learning Alliance. From these meetings a draft policy was drawn up, training guidance was put together from resources shown below, so that pre-school SENCO's could use this information to cascade down to Early Years Practitioners and parents via in-house training with Early Years support.

Resources

General behaviour management approaches.

DFEE circular 10/98 (section 550 A Ed. Act)

DFES/DOH (2002) Learning disability and ASD Guidance

DFES (2003) Guidance for severe behaviour difficulties.

Hampshire County Council guidelines (1999) physical restraint for schools.

Hampshire County Council planning and recording guidance for schools (2003)

Health and Safety at Work (1974 and 1999)

Criminal Law Act (1967)

Aim

All Early Years Practitioners in pre-school aim to help children take responsibility for their own behaviour.

This can be done through a combination of approaches which include Positive Behaviour Management. However, there are occasions when a child's behaviour can be more challenging and may require the use of 'Physical Handling'

Definitions

What is meant by Physical Handling - there are three types of Physical Handling

1) Physical Handling: the positive use of touch is a normal part of human interaction. Touch might be appropriate in a range of situations i.e.

- Giving guidance to children (how to hold a paint brush or when climbing)
- Providing emotional support (such as placing an arm around a distressed child)
- Physical care (such as first aid or toileting)

2) Physical Intervention - can include mechanical and environmental means such as high chairs, stair gates or locked doors. These may be appropriate ways of ensuring a child's safety.

3) Restrictive physical intervention - Early Years Practitioners uses physical force intentionally to restrict a child's movement against his or her will.

Principles - the pre-school Early Years Practitioners will only use restrictive physical intervention in extreme circumstances to manage a child's behaviour. It is our policy to adhere to:

Positive Behaviour Management - promoting the use of positive behaviour management, our aim is to do all we can to avoid using restrictive physical intervention.

Paramount - restrictive physical handling will only be used when the Early Years Practitioners believe its use is in the child's best interest; their need is paramount

Duty of care - all Early Years Practitioners have a duty of care towards the children in pre-school. When children are in danger of hurting themselves, others or of causing damage to property, Early Years Practitioners have a duty to intervene. This may involve an attempt to divert the child to another activity or a simple instruction to 'stop'. However, if it is judged as necessary, Early Years Practitioners may use restrictive physical intervention.

Reasonable minimal force - when physical intervention is used, it is used within the principal of reasonable minimal force i.e. Early Years Practitioners should use as little force as is necessary in order to maintain safety. Early Years Practitioners should use this for as short a period of time as possible.

When can restrictive physical intervention be used?

- When someone is injuring themselves or others.
- When someone is damaging property
- Where there is suspicion that although injury, damage or other crime has not yet happened, it is about to happen.

It cannot be used

- When it may make a situation worse
- In anger or as a punishment
- When an alternative less intrusive measure could be used and be more effective.

Who can use restrictive physical intervention?

- A member of Early Years Practitioners who knows the child well i.e. Key Person
- Identified Early Years Practitioners who are most appropriate to be involved
- In an emergency. Anyone can use restrictive physical intervention so long as it is consistent with the pre-school's policy.

What type of physical intervention can and cannot be used

- Aim: for side by side contact with the child. Early Years Practitioners should avoid positioning themselves in front (to reduce the risk of being kicked) or behind (to reduce the risk of allegations of sexual misconduct).
- Aim: for no gap between the Early Years Practitioners and child's body when they are side by side. This minimizes the risk of impact and damage.
- Aim: to keep the adult's back as straight as possible.
- Be aware in particular of head positioning, to avoid head butts from the child.
- Hold children by 'long' bones i.e. avoid grasping at joints where pain and damage are most likely.
- Ensure that there is no restriction to the child's ability to breathe. In particular, this means avoiding holding a child round the chest cavity or stomach.
- Avoid lifting children and do not hold them in time out.
- Don't use seclusion (where a child is left alone)

Who is best to deal with the situation?

- Early Years Practitioners known to child (Key Person)
- Parent/carer (working in partnership)
- Whole staff approach (all Early Years Practitioners working consistently to help the child and support each other)
- SENCO

Planning - when planning risk assessment, consider:

What are the risks?

Who is at risk and how?

What can we do to manage the risk?

Ensure Early Years Practitioners have specific training in the use of restrictive physical intervention and appropriate refresher training.

Individual behaviour plan - pre-school Early Years Practitioners will draw from as many different view points as possible when it is known that an individual child's behaviour is likely to require some form of restrictive intervention, taking into consideration:

Ecological change - changes at home or pre-school that maybe a trigger point. Look at how the child's environment could be adapted to meet the child's needs.

Communicative function - difficulties in expressing their needs verbally. Use a feeling picture or nursery narrative to aid child's communication skills.

Teaching new skills - how the child can be taught and encouraged to use new, more appropriate behaviours. Encourage responsibility for their own actions

Reinforcement - praise good behaviour

Responsive strategies- use humour, distraction, relocation and offering alternative choices to help support child (no more than two choices so not to confuse the child).

Outside support- Early Years Practitioners will be involved alongside parents/carers, area SENCO, Educational Psychologists, Portage Plus Workers, Behaviour Support Team, Speech and Language Therapists and Social Workers.

Supporting and reviewing

Distress - can be upsetting for the child and any Early Years Practitioners involved, support for the child and for the Early Years Practitioners is paramount.

Repair relationships - between child and peer, child and Early Years Practitioners to harbour no permanent ill feeling towards the child

Review behaviour plan - involve all Early Years Practitioners and parents to ensure child's needs are supported. The outcome from planning meetings will be recorded and a signature will be sought from the parent/carer to confirm their knowledge and acceptance of the planned approach.

Monitoring (ongoing basis) by:

Names person(s) - Karen Halbauer and Angie O'Driscoll

Support from area SENCO's

Identifying trends - note recurring causes to effect behaviour problems

Reviewing plans at least every four to six months or more frequently if there are major changes to the child's circumstances.

Recording and reporting - involve Early Years Practitioners and parents/carers

Record any use of restrictive physical intervention

This must be done within 24 hours of the incident

Use the Hampshire physical intervention form

Early Years Practitioners must inform the child's parent/carer

Parents/carers will be given a copy of the record form

Area SENCO to inform local authority (OFSTED)

Complaints

Should there be a need for complaint, refer to the Complaints Policy (page 13)

Reviewing the policy

This policy will be reviewed annually from the date of adoption and updated as required.

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN POLICY

Statement of intent:

Our pre-school want to work with children, parents and the community to ensure the safety of children and to give them the very best start in life.

Aims:

Our aims are to:

- Create an environment in our pre-school which encourages children to develop a positive self image, regardless of race, language, religion, culture or home background.
- Encourage children to develop a sense of autonomy and independence.
- Enable children to have the self confidence and the vocabulary to resist inappropriate approaches.

The legal framework for this work is:

- The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act
- The Children's Act 1989
- Human Rights Act 1998
- Data Protection Act 1984
- The Protection of Children Act 1999

Liaison with Social Services and other Agencies:

We work within the Local Safeguarding Children Board guidelines

We have a copy of 'What to do if you are worried a child is being abused' for parents and Early Years Practitioners, and all Early Years Practitioners are familiar with what to do if they have concerns.

We have procedures for contacting the local authority on child protection issues, including maintaining a list of names, addresses and telephone numbers of social workers, to ensure that it is easy, in any emergency, for the setting and social services to work well together.

We notify the registration authority (Ofsted) of any incident or accident and any changes in our arrangements which may affect the wellbeing of children.

Details of the local National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC) contacts are also kept.

If a referral is to be made to the local authority social services department, we act within the Local Safeguarding Children Board in deciding whether we must inform the child's parents at the same time.

Methods:

Staffing and Volunteering

Our named person who coordinates Child Protection issues is: Angie O'Driscoll

- We provide adequate and appropriate Early Years Practitioners resources to meet the needs of children.
- Applicants for posts within the pre-school are clearly informed that the positions are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. Candidates are informed of the need to carry out checks before posts can be confirmed. Where applications are rejected because of information that has been disclosed, applicants have the right to know and to challenge incorrect information.
- We abide by Ofsted requirements in respect of references and criminal records bureau checks for Early Years Practitioners and volunteers, to ensure that no disqualified person or unfit person works at the pre-school.
- Students and volunteers do not work unsupervised.
- We abide by the Protection of Children Act requirements in respect of any person who is dismissed from our employment, or resigns in circumstances that would otherwise have lead to dismissal for reasons of child protection concern.
- We have procedures for recording the details of visitors to the pre-school
- We take security steps to ensure that we have control over who comes into the pre-school so that no unauthorised person has unsupervised access to the children.
- Early Years Practitioners will not carry personal mobile phones whilst working.
- No mention of Funtime Pre-school and the names of children at pre-school will be made by Early Years Practitioners on any social networking sites. Photos of the children will not be posted on social networking sites.

Disciplinary Action

Where an Early Years Practitioner or a volunteer is dismissed from the pre-school or internally disciplined because of misconduct relating to a child, we notify the Department of Health administrators so that the name may be included on the list for Protection of Children and Vulnerable Adults.

Training

We seek out training opportunities for all adults involved in the Pre-school to ensure that they are able to recognise the signs and symptoms of possible physical abuse, emotional abuse, sexual abuse, and neglect and so that they are aware of the local authority guidelines for making referrals. We ensure that all Early Years

Practitioners know the procedures for reporting and recording their concerns in the pre-school.

Planning

The layout of the room allows for constant supervision. Where children need to spend time away from the rest of the group, the door is left ajar.

Curriculum

- We introduce key elements of child protection into our foundation stage curriculum so that the children can develop understanding of why and how to keep safe i.e. 'stranger danger'
- We create within the pre-school a culture of value and respect for the individual.
- We ensure that this is carried out in a way that is appropriate for the ages and stages of our children.

Complaints

- We ensure that all parents know how to complain about Early Years Practitioners or volunteer action within the pre-school, which may include an allegation of abuse. (See Complaints Procedure)
- We follow the guidance of the Local Safeguarding Children Board when investigating any complaint that an Early Years Practitioner or volunteer has abused a child.
- We follow all the disclosure and recording procedures when investigating an allegation that an Early Years Practitioner or volunteer has abused a child as if it were an allegation of abuse by any other person.

Responding to suspicions of abuse

We acknowledge that abuse of children can take different forms - physical, emotional, sexual and neglect. When children are suffering from physical, sexual or emotional abuse, this may be demonstrated through changes in behaviour or in their play. Where such changes in behaviour occur, or where children's play gives cause for concern, the pre-school investigates.

The pre-school will discuss with parents their concerns where appropriate and keep records of concerns. In situations where urgent action is needed to be taken to protect the child, the concern will be referred to Social Services immediately;

We allow investigation to be carried out with sensitivity. Early Years Practitioners in pre-school take care not to influence the outcome either through the way they speak to children or ask questions of children.

Where a child shows signs and symptoms of 'failure to thrive' or neglect, we make appropriate referrals.

Disclosures

Where a child makes a disclosure to an Early Years Practitioner, she:

- offers reassurance to the child
- listens to the child and
- gives reassurance that she or he will take action

The Early Years Practitioner does not question the child.

Recording suspicions of abuse and disclosures

Early Years Practitioners make a record of

- The child's name
- The child's address
- The age of the child
- The date and time of the observation or disclosure
- An objective record of the observation or disclosure
- The exact words spoken by the child
- The name of the person to whom the concern was reported, with date and time
- The names of any other person present at the time.

These records are signed and dated and kept in a separate confidential file.

All Early Years Practitioners know the procedures for recording and reporting.

Informing parents

Parents are normally the first point of contact. If a suspicion of abuse is recorded, parents are informed at the same time as the report is made, except where the guidance of the Local Safeguarding Children Board does not allow this. This will be the case where the parent is the likely abuser. In these cases the investigating officers will inform the parents.

Confidentiality

All suspicions and investigations are kept confidential and shared only with those who need to know. Any information is shared under the guidance of the Local Safeguarding Children Board, as referred to in the 'What to do if you are worried a child is being abused' Publication and Flowchart.

Support to Families

- The pre-school takes every step in its power to build up trusting and supportive relations among families, Early Years Practitioners and volunteers in the group.
- The pre-school continues to welcome the child and the family whilst investigations are being made in relation to abuse in the home situation.
- Confidential records kept on a child are shared with the child's parents or those who have parental responsibility for the child only if appropriate under the guidance of the Local Safeguarding Children Board.
- With the proviso that the care and safety of the child is paramount, we do all in our power to support and work with the child's family.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

Statement of intent

Our pre-school believes that children and parents are entitled to expect courtesy and prompt, careful attention to their needs and wishes. We welcome suggestions on how to improve our pre-school and will give prompt and serious attention to any concerns about the running of the pre-school. We anticipate that most concerns will be resolved quickly by an informal approach to the appropriate Early Years Practitioner. If this does not achieve the desired result, we have a set of procedures for dealing with concerns.

Aim

We aim to bring all concerns about the running of our pre-school to a satisfactory conclusion for all the parties involved.

Methods

To achieve this, we operate the following complaints procedure. All settings are required to keep a Complaints Log of all complaints. This is to be made available to parents as well as to Ofsted inspectors.

Stage 1

- Any parent who is uneasy about an aspect of the pre-school's provision talks over, first of all, his/her worries and anxieties with the pre-school leader.

Stage 2

- If this does not have a satisfactory outcome, or if the problem recurs, the parent moves to stage 2 of the procedure by putting the concerns or complaint in writing to the pre-school leader and the owner/chair of the management committee.
- The setting stores written complaints from parents in the child's personal file. However, if the complaint involves a detailed investigation, the setting leader may wish to store all information relating to the investigation in a separate file designated for this complaint.
- When the investigation into the complaint is completed, the setting leader or manager meets with the parent to discuss the outcome; this should be done within 28 days of receiving the complaint.

Most complaints should be able to be resolved informally at Stage 1 or at Stage 2.

Stage 3

- The parent requests a meeting with the pre-school leader and the Chair of the management committee. Both the parents and the leader should have a friend or partner present if required. An agreed written record of the discussion is made. All of the parties present at the meeting sign the record and receive a copy of it.

This signed record signifies that the procedure has concluded. When the complaint is resolved at this stage, the summative points are logged in the Complaints Log.

Stage 4

- If at the stage 3 meeting the parent and pre-school cannot reach agreement, an external mediator is invited to help to settle the complaint. This person should be acceptable to both parties, listen to both sides and offer advice. A mediator has no legal powers but can help to define the problem, review the action so far and suggest further ways in which it might be resolved.
- Early Years Practitioners or volunteers within the Pre-School Learning Alliance are appropriate persons to be invited to act as mediators.
- The mediator keeps all discussion confidential. S/he can hold separate meetings with the pre-school personnel (pre-school leader and Chair of the management committee) and the parent, if this is decided to be helpful. The mediator keeps an agreed written record of any meetings that are held and of any advice w/he gives.

Stage 5

- When the mediator has concluded her/his investigations, a final meeting between the parent, the pre-school leader and the Chair of the management committee is held. The purpose of this meeting is to reach a decision on the action to be taken to deal with the complaint. The mediator's advice is used to reach this conclusion. The mediator is present at the meeting if all parties think this will help a decision to be reached.
- A record of this meeting including the decision on the action to be taken is made. Everyone present at the meeting signs the record and receives a copy of it. This signed record signifies that the procedure has concluded.

The role of the Office for Standards in Education, Early Years Directorate (Ofsted) and the Local Safeguarding Children Board.

Parents may approach Ofsted directly at any stage of this complaints procedure. In addition, where there seems to be a possible breach of our registration requirements. THE NON-COLLECTION OF CHILDREN POLICY

In the event that a child is not collected by an authorised adult at the end of the pre-school session, Funtime Pre-school puts into practice agreed procedures. These ensure the child is cared for safely by an experienced and qualified practitioner who is known to the child.

Aim

In the event that a child is not collected by an authorised adult, we will ensure that the child receives a high standard of care in order to cause as little distress as possible. We inform parents/carers of our procedures so that, if they are unavoidably delayed, they will be reassured that their children will be properly cared for.

Procedures:

1. Parents of children starting at the pre-school are asked to provide specific information which is recorded on our confidential form, including:
 - Home address and telephone number - if the parents do not have a telephone, an alternative number must be given, perhaps a neighbour.
 - Place of work, address and telephone number if applicable.
 - Mobile telephone number if applicable.
 - Names, addresses, telephone numbers and signatures of adults who are authorised by the parents to collect their child from pre-school, for example a child minder or grandparent and
 - Information about any person who does not have legal access to the child.

3. On occasions when parents or the persons normally authorised to collect the child are not able to collect the child, they record the name, address and telephone number of the person who will be collecting their child in the day to day book. We agree with parents how the identification of the person who is to collect their child will be verified.
4. Parents are informed that if they are not able to collect the child as planned, they must inform us so that we can begin to take back-up procedures. We provide parents with our contact telephone number. We also inform parents that - in the event that their children are not collected from pre-school by an authorised adult and the Early Years Practitioners can no longer supervise the child in our premises - we apply our child protection procedures as set out in our child protection policy.
5. If a child is not collected at the end of the session, we follow the following procedures:
 - The day to day book is checked for any information about changes to the normal collection routines:
 - If no information is available, parents/carers are contacted at home or at work.
 - If this is unsuccessful, the adults who are authorised by the parents to collect their child from pre-school - and whose telephone numbers are recorded on the confidential sheet - are contacted.
 - All reasonable attempts are made to contact the parents/carers, for example a neighbour is contacted or another member of staff visits the child's home;
 - The child stays at pre-school in the care of two fully vetted workers until the child is safely collected.
 - The child does not leave the premises with anyone other than those named on the confidential sheet and in the day to day book.
 - If no-one collects the child and the premises are closing or Early Years Practitioners are no longer available to care for the child, we apply the procedures laid out in our Safeguarding Children Policy. We contact Ofsted Tel. 08456 404040 and our local Safeguarding Children Board. A full written report of the incident is recorded and depending on circumstances, we reserve the right to charge parents for the additional hours worked by our Early Years Practitioners.

Through play based activities we offer to provide a high quality early years experience to support your child to build upon their academic, social and emotional success. Children are valued as unique individuals and inclusive practice is ensured.

Personal, social and emotional development.

Aim: to help children to build a positive sense of themselves and of others; respect of others; social skills; emotional wellbeing and a positive disposition to learn.

Implementation: key person to ensure that the child is valued and comforted during their settling in period. Close partnership with parents to share the care and education of their child. Continuous observations and assessments on the child's progress with individual plans drawn up to promote future learning and development to build the child's confidence, self esteem and independence.

Communication, language and literacy

Aim: to develop, extend and enrich the skills of communication, speaking and listening, being read to and recognizing phonic letters and sounds. Build the skills towards recognizable mark making, gaining some control in the use of tools and equipment.

Implementation: link language with physical movement in actions songs and rhymes, role play and activities such as dance. Encourage the children to express how they feel, value what they have to say, talk and listen. Introduce phonological awareness. Link the written word to the spoken word during story time and introduce other systems of communication such as pictures, body language and signing.

Problem solving, reasoning and numeracy

Aim: allow children to explore, enjoy, learn, practice and talk about their understanding of patterns, sorting, matching, shapes, space, measures, numbers and counting.

Implementation: develop mathematical understanding through all the children's early experiences. Introduce the concept and language of reasoning, problem solving and numeracy during play using mathematical terms. Support problem solving and extend learning by open ended questions. Use physical evidence and opportunities for experimentation. Enjoy songs and rhymes for numbers and repetitive sequencing.

Knowledge and understanding of the world

Aim: to develop the knowledge, skills and understanding that help them to make sense of the world. Offering opportunities to use a range of tools safely; encourage creatures, people, plants and objects in their natural environments and in real-life situations; understand practical 'experiments' and work with a range of materials.

Implementation: sharing parent's knowledge to extend the children's experiences of the world. Introduce a stimulating environment to offer a range of activities which will encourage children's interest and curiosity, both indoors and outdoors. Teach skills and knowledge in the context of practical activities. Use a range of ICT. Help the children to become aware of, explore and question differences in gender, ethnicity, language, religion, culture, special educational needs and disability.

Physical development

Aim: Provide opportunities for children to be active and interactive and to improve their skills of co-ordination, control, manipulation and movement. Encourage the use of their senses to learn about the world around them and to make connections between new information and what they already know. Develop understanding of the importance of physical activity and making healthy choices in relation to food.

Implementation: build children's confidence to take manageable risks at their play. Motivate children to be active and help them to develop movement skills through praise, encouragement, equipment and games both indoors and outdoors. Encourage children's understanding of how exercise, eating, sleeping and hygiene promote good health. Introduce appropriate vocabulary to children, alongside their actions.

Creative development

Aim: support children's curiosity, exploration and play. Offer opportunities to explore and share their thoughts, ideas and feelings through a variety of activities for example art, music, movement, dance, role play, mathematics, design and technology.

Implementation: present a wide range of experiences and activities that children can respond to by using many of their senses. Encourage time for children to develop ideas and finish working through their ideas. Create opportunities to express their ideas through a wide range of types of representations.

Key person

Our key person system gives each Early Years Practitioner particular responsibility for a small group of children. Each child in the group has one special adult to relate to, which can make settling into the group very much easier. In addition, the key person is in a position to tailor the group's curriculum to the unique needs of each individual child. The key person maintains links with the child's home setting, working with parents/carers through shared record keeping to ensure that all children are supported in reaching their full potential. Time will be set aside for you to have a discussion with your child's key person to discuss their progress; please don't hesitate to discuss any questions or queries you may have.

Clothing

We provide a number of activities in pre school which come under the heading of 'messy play', in order for your child to feel free to explore and experiment with all kinds of materials during these activities. It is best to send children dressed in clothes, which are easily washable or not too new. Pre-school polo shirts and sweatshirts are available for purchase and we encourage children to wear them. Although we provide waterproof and other protective aprons, accidents do happen. Also, as it is good for the children to practice the skills which will make them independent, we suggest the children wear simple clothing which they can handle themselves and will enable them to go the toilet when they want to. Being children they often leave this to the last minute and needing an adult to undo them, which can often be too late, which for some children, can lead to a stressful situation. We like to encourage the children to be independent with regards to putting on their socks/shoes and coats, also in recognising them. Please ensure shoes and coats have name labels on them.

The children will have the opportunity to play in the fresh air throughout the year, as we have a secure garden area at the rear of the church building. The children have a variety of play equipment to use and will be supervised at all times. Children should arrive at pre-school with clothes suitable for indoor and outdoor play.

Pre-school Outings

On occasions we have taken the children out on school visits in the local community and to visit local primary schools. You will be notified of any forthcoming visits, written permission will be sought from parents/carers on the contract form. Our annual pre-school outing is organised by the Committee and all the pre-school children and their families/carers are invited.

Planning, recording and assessment:

Topic planning takes place on a monthly or half termly basis. Activity planning occurs on a weekly or daily basis. The topic planning and activity planning sheets used by the pre-school are laid out to identify each of the areas of learning in the "Early Learning Goals" document. This ensures all areas of learning are considered whenever a topic or activity is planned.

Early Years Practitioners are able to observe the children informally and records of such observations can be made on the child/ren's personal profile sheets or on activity record sheets. Samples of the children's work are kept in the child's folder as appropriate.

Assessment is carried out through a mixture of informal observation, interaction with the child, the use of information on record sheets and discussion during regular Early Years Practitioners meetings. The information gathered during the assessment process is then used for future planning of activities for each child.

Information gained through recording and assessment will be shared with parents, other school Early Years Practitioners and outside agencies as appropriate.

EMERGENCY CLOSURE PROCEDURE

Statement of Intent

In the event that pre-school has to close due to an emergency, the following procedure will be followed:

- The Chair Person and Supervisor will confirm that this is the right decision to be made, on the grounds of the health and safety of children and staff.
- Up to date contact details and session attendance will be kept at home by the Chair Person, Supervisor and Administrator. The list of children will be divided by the aforementioned persons, who will contact all parents/carers by phone, text, e-mail and web site.
- An official notice will be placed on the entrance door with contact information.
- The Supervisor will notify the staff and Ofsted.
- The Administrator will notify Hampshire County Council and any other persons or organisations due to visit pre-school throughout the closure.
- The Chair Person will keep the Committee informed.

Parents will be advised that further information can be obtained via the pre-school web site www.funtimepreschool.org or by contacting the pre-school mobile telephone number.

Influenza pandemic

The pre-school will follow the published government advice on closure in the event of an influenza pandemic. In addition to this advice the pre-school would have to close should there be a high level of staff sickness. There is a statutory requirement of law that children are supervised by Early Years Practitioners holding at least a level 3 qualification. If this is not possible due to staff sickness, then pre-school would have to close until such times as the right levels of staffing could be ensured.

In the event of such a situation parents will be advised of the closure through the pre-school web-site alongside the pigeon hole system for communication. Pre-school will display a notice on the main door and will provide constant updates via the website.

APPENDIX 1

CAF - Common Assessment Framework Statement

As a setting we are committed to providing the very best support to all the families and children that we come in contact with. If you have a problem or issue as a family, you don't need to feel alone. The Common Assessment Framework is designed to allow you to access the right professionals as soon as possible.

CAF is in place to find out what is going well in your family and help to identify needs that are not already being met. This is done by listening to you as a family and with your full permission, getting the right sort of help. CAF is a voluntary and therefore not compulsory. It is entirely your choice if you take part or not. Some of the professionals that may be involved are from the following areas:

- Education
- Health
- Youth Justice
- Social care
- Youth service
- Connexions
- Voluntary and community sector
- Other children's services

All these come together to support Multi-Agency working.

Once CAF has established the right help for you, the necessary professionals will be contacted to find the best support for you, before things become too difficult.

You will only need tell your story once, rather than lots of time to different people.

If you agree to go through CAF, a professional you know, will complete a form and a copy will be given to you.

This information is then passed on to the people that can help you the most. These are the only people who will see the information you have provided.

One of these professionals will act as your 'lead professional'. You will have some input as to who this will be. This is important as the lead professional will communicate information to you, listen to your concerns and ensure everyone is working together to support your needs.

Your information will not be shared with anyone without your permission.

This is a statement to make parents aware of CAF as a supportive tool and does not affect or replace the policies and procedures for the setting.

CAF does not replace the Safeguarding Children Policy, which staff will continue to follow if and when necessary.

MOBILE PHONE AND PHOTOGRAPHIC IMAGES POLICY

Statement of Intent

Mobile phones play an increasing part in everyone's lives, but Funtime Pre-school believes that in order to fully ensure the protection of the children in its care, certain procedures for mobile phone use within this setting need to be abided by.

Photographs of children are often used in gathering observations of children's achievements and how these are collected, developed and stored are also a consideration of this setting to ensure children are adequately safeguarded. The use of images of children on websites is also a consideration.

Aim

We aim to ensure that all parents and carers can be sure that images of their children will not be misused.

Methods

Mobile phone usage:

- The pre-school mobile phone will not have a camera facility. It will be kept at pre-school during term time. For periods when pre-school is closed for longer than 2 weeks or in an emergency closure situation, the mobile phone will be kept with the Administrator, so that she may be able to deal with any admissions or general enquiries.
- Early Years Practitioners will not carry personal mobile phones whilst working. Staff can use the setting's mobile number as an emergency contact number. Staff may use their mobile phones during their break times in an area where children are not present.
- All visitors to pre-school will be advised on arrival that mobile phones cannot be used whilst in the setting. Phones should be left securely whilst the visitor is in attendance and collected before leaving. Any calls received or made must be in an area where children are not present.

Photographs

- Photographs of children will be taken to record their development and to share special moments with parents.
- Permission for these photographs will be asked for as part of the initial starter pack that each parent receives before their child starts at pre-school. The signed permission slip is pasted into the front of each child's Learning Journal and lasts for the duration that the child is at the setting.
- Parents will be requested to give permission for their child's learning journal and associated photos to be taken off-site by their key worker in order to update the records.
- The pre-school camera and memory card remains on the setting's premises at all times. Photos are developed using a printer at the setting.
- Only photographs which show groups of children will be used on the setting's website. No images which may be considered inappropriate, such as close-up shots of individual children, will be used on the website. Where children are named, only their first names will be given. Where a child is named, no photograph of that child will be displayed. Where a photograph is used which shows a child, no name is displayed. This will ensure that visitors to the website cannot link images to the names of children.
- Where an image of a child is chosen to be displayed on the website, the parent's permission will be sought.
- No other private information about children is ever published on the website such as surnames or contact details.
- The setting may record special performances by the children for sale to parents as part of fundraising activities, e.g. the Christmas concert. The video footage and subsequent copying will be undertaken by CRB checked members of the committee or other CRB checked individuals. The original film will be kept for 1 month following the performance, to allow for late requests, and will then be deleted. No names of children will be associated with the footage.
- The setting follows the guidelines published by the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) on parents photographing their children at special events. Photographs taken for personal use are exempt from the Data Protection Act (DPA). This means that parents, friends and family members can take photographs of children taking part in pre-school activities for the family album and can film events at school.

- No mention of Funtime Pre-school and the names of children at pre-school will be made by Early Years Practitioners on any social networking sites. Photos of the children will not be posted on social networking sites.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

Statement of Intent

Funtime Pre-school believes that in the best interest of its members, it is important to have clear and transparent management processes. With this in mind, and changes in charity law now enabling paid employees to become themselves members, it is felt that to ensure the setting is not compromised through conflicts of interests, procedures should be followed in the event of a paid employee, relations or partners of staff members or anyone else who may have a conflict of interest becoming a member of the management committee or director of a company limited by guarantee.

Aims

- Prevention of conflicts of interest within a charitable voluntary management committee or company limited by guarantee policy.

Methods

- In the event of committee members joining having a possible conflict of interest, the conflict of interest must be declared. The committee will then discuss the possible implications of the conflicts of interests and how this could effect discussions and decision making.
- Once conflicts are agreed procedures should be discussed as to how to deal with the possible conflict e.g. member asked to leave during discussions or declares conflict and forfeits their vote.
- Depending on the nature of the conflict the committee may decide to restrict the role undertaken on the committee or decline membership.
- The committee have the right to discuss and decide without having the possible conflict of interest member present, though the person will be notified of the decision and justification and will have the right to appeal the decision.
- All decisions and procedures implemented will be recorded to ensure future meetings are run inline with the decisions made.
- No employee can be paid for their services to the management committee which form part of their duties as a committee member and trustee, as with all members it is a voluntary post.

WHISTLE BLOWING POLICY

Statement of Intent

At Funtime Pre-school it is important that any fraud, misconduct or wrong doing by employees, volunteers or people engaged in Pre-school, is reported and properly dealt with. We want to ensure that anyone connected with pre-school feels confident and are encouraged to reveal any concerns that they may have and so we have established the following whistle blowing code of practice.

Aims

- to encourage all individuals to raise any concerns they have about the conduct of others in the setting, or how the setting is run.
- to promote effective and honest communication which is essential for malpractice to be efficiently dealt with.

Methods

Whistle blowing relates to all those who work with or within the setting. The policy acts as a framework to allow the concerns to be raised confidentially and provides for a thorough and appropriate investigation of the matter to bring it to a satisfactory conclusion. Throughout this policy the term whistle-blower denotes the person raising the cause of this complaint.

This policy should only be used for dealing with major concerns over the conduct of other people involved in the setting. It should not be used to report personal grievances, harassment, disciplinary matters, bullying or any other issues or concerns that affect a member of staff's personal circumstances. In this instance the setting's grievance procedures should be followed.

Funtime Pre-school is committed to creating a climate of trust and openness so that a person who has a genuine concern or suspicion can raise the matter with full confidence that it will be appropriately considered and resolved.

The following concerns are relevant:

- Danger to health and safety of any individual
- Child protection concerns
- Malpractice
- Fraud
- Improper conduct/ unethical behaviour
- A criminal offence
- Breach of a legal obligation
- Miscarriage of justice
- Attempts to suppress or conceal any information relating to the above

When might the Whistle Blowing Policy apply and who can raise a concern?

- Anyone who has a reasonable belief that there is some malpractice relating to any of the issues mentioned above is entitled to raise a concern. It is the responsibility of all staff to report any illegal, inappropriate or unethical conduct.
- Concerns must be raised without malice and in good faith. You must reasonably believe that any information disclosed and any allegations made are true. You will not be expected to prove beyond doubt that the allegation is true but you will need to demonstrate that there are reasonable grounds for your concern.
- If you make any allegation in good faith but it is not confirmed by any subsequent investigation, then no action will be taken against you.
- If you make an allegation frivolously, maliciously or for personal gain, the appropriate disciplinary or legal action may be taken against you.

- Your concerns will be treated in confidence and every effort will be made not to reveal the identity of the person who raised the concern. However at the appropriate time the individual who made the allegation may need to come forward as a witness.
- Any individual who raises a concern in good faith will be protected from any possible reprisals or victimisation. Where this occurs the individual should report it using the Pre-School's grievance procedures.

What action should the whistle blower take?

- Reports should be passed to the pre-school Supervisor. If this is not possible, then it should be reported to the Chair of the Pre-school Committee.
- You may wish to discuss your concern with a colleague first and you may find it easier to raise the matter if there are two (or more) of you who have had the same experiences or concerns. The whistle blower may wish to invite a colleague to be present during any meetings or interviews in connection with the concerns raised.
- Concerns should be made verbally or in writing. In both instances you will be required to state:
 1. The background and history of the concern
 2. The reason you are concerned
 3. The extent to which you have personally witnessed or experienced the problem
- The pre-school Supervisor and/or Chair of the Pre-school Committee will decide whether the allegation falls within the scope of existing Pre-school policies and procedures.
- The pre-school Supervisor and/or Chair of the Pre-school Committee will consider the complaint and decide whether there is a case to answer. The whistle blower will be informed of the outcome. Confidentiality will be observed at all times.
- If misconduct is uncovered through an investigation, disciplinary procedures will be followed.
- If an employee or any other member of Pre-school is asked to cover up a wrongdoing, this is itself a disciplinary offence and should not be agreed to even if asked to do so by a manager. This should be reported to the Chair of the Pre-school committee or via Hampshire County Council's Children's Links team if this is more appropriate.

Funtime Pre-school Ltd

Managing Allegations made against a member/s of staff or volunteer/s Policy

Statement of Intent

Funtime Pre-school want to work with parents and volunteers to ensure the children gain the maximum from their time with us. We recognise, however, that allegations could be made against members of staff or volunteers working with the children. Allegations may come from a parent, child, colleague or member of the public. It is important to remember that allegations do not always mean that the alleged incidence has taken place; but if there is any likelihood that the allegation is justified then it must be responded to and procedure must be followed. All parents, volunteers and staff in the setting know how to complain about staff or volunteer action, as outlined in the Complaints Policy. If the complaint is against the Supervisor concerns should be referred to the Chair of the Management Committee.

Method

If an allegation is made that a member of staff has:

- behaved in a way that has harmed, or may have harmed a child;
- possibly committed a criminal offence against, or related to a child; or
- behaved towards a child or children in a way that indicated s/he is unsuitable to work with children it must be reported following the same procedure as any other child protection referral.

- First of all a record must be made of the disclosure/information that gives cause for concern, along with any supporting information. This is then entered on the file of the child in question.
- If the allegation refers to more than one child then this will be recorded in the same way and a copy filed in each child's file.
- The relevant sections of the referral form are completed and the Children's Services duty team are contacted.
- The Supervisor and Committee Chair are informed as soon as possible.
- According to the seriousness of the allegation and the likelihood of them having occurred the disciplinary procedure will be instigated and the member of staff will be sent home until further advice is received from the investigating body (Children's Services and/or the Police).
- Ofsted will be informed as soon as possible, they may then carry out their own investigation to ensure that there have been no breaches in registration requirements.
- Children's Services and/or the Police will continue their investigation. Managers and staff cooperate fully with the process.
- No further disciplinary action is taken against the member of staff against whom the allegations have been made until all investigations are concluded. In some cases, the decision to suspend the member of staff on full pay may be made by the Chair, acting upon the advice of Children's Services, the Police or Ofsted. The member of staff will not automatically be suspended without full consideration of the circumstances and the welfare of the child/children concerned will remain paramount at all times.
- It is important to remember that allegations do not always mean that the alleged incident has taken place. The member of staff concerned will be supported and treated with respect at all times throughout the investigation. False allegations are stressful and upsetting, it is important that the member of staff is not judged until the result of the investigation is known.
- Following the investigation, if it appears that the allegations are justified the Supervisor and Chair will instigate the disciplinary procedure.

- If a member of staff is dismissed because of a proven or strong likelihood of child abuse or inappropriate behaviour towards a child, the relevant office at the Department of Health will be informed to register the person concerned on the Protection of Children and Vulnerable Adults list. The Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA) will also be informed.
- Not all cases arising from allegations of child abuse come to court as there may be insufficient evidence for prosecution. Where it seems likely that, on the balance of probabilities, despite lacking clear evidence abuse may well have taken place, the employer is justified, in law, in dismissing the individual and referring him or her to ISA.
- All allegations will be followed through and investigated in this way even if the person involved resigns or ceases to be a volunteer.
